“ My Sister. You probably never knew how much I love you and that I admired you . You could do anything, decorate, your love of animals, your big heart and understanding. When we were younger I was so proud that we were sisters. As we grew older the miles and busy lives kept us apart, which should never happen to sisters. But when anything happened in my family I always wanted my sister to know, it was just a comfort for me and then when I talked to you I always felt better. Like I've talked to Mary and all will be okay. I will miss you dearly and love you forever. Always in my heart and mind. We'll always be sisters and I will miss you.
