

Matthew Charles Hrebec

May 8, 1961 - May 27, 2021

Matthew “Matt” Charles Hrebec, son of Charles William Hrebec, Jr. and Jeanette Julia (Kostecki) Hrebec, was born May 8, 1961 in St. Louis, Missouri where he grew up and attended Chaminade College Preparatory School. He was a member of the Cathedral Basilica of St. Louis before moving to the Crocker, Missouri area.

In his early years, Matt worked as a painter/contractor before becoming Co-Vice President of Colt Industries for 20+ years. Most recently, he owned and operated MPH Properties.

In his spare time, Matt was a baker, chef, fisherman, wood worker, painter, gardener, collector, and historian (just to name a few). He was a jack of all trades and enjoyed living life. Most importantly, he loved spending time with his family: companion, Carrie Brewer, his three children: Matt, Destiny, and Hannah, and his two granddaughters. He treasured those times spent with them and also enjoyed spending time with his friends.

Matt passed away Thursday, May 27, 2021 in his home having attained the age of 60 years. He will be sadly missed, but fondly remembered by all those that knew and loved him.

Matt leaves to cherish his memory his three children: Matthew Hrebec, Jr. of St. Louis, MO, Destiny Hrebec of the state of Texas, and Hannah Hrebec of Tulsa, OK; two granddaughters; father: Charlie Hrebec of Clayton, MO; one brother: Paul Hrebec (Lisa) of Fenton, MO; girlfriend: Carrie Brewer of Crocker, MO; several other relatives and friends.

Matt was preceded in death by his mother: Jeanette Julia Hrebec; and one brother: Fredrick Hrebec.

Even though he is gone from our sight, his fun-loving spirit will live on in our hearts forever.

“ There are a lot of Matt's in our circle of family & friends. When my sister would mention Matt I was confused to which Matt she was talking about. So I asked what his middle name was & was told Charles...so from then on I called him Chuck. ❤️
