“ I always knew Mr. Mallowas the owner of Mallow's market and every time we would need groceries when I was a kid he would let my dad have a tab until the beginning of the month when he would get his Social Security check and we could pay for it he was such a kind man he will always be a part of my childhood memories.

“ I have Known Merrion and Wanda Mallow for as long as I can remember and believe that they were both generous, kind, thoughtful, and faithful. They helped a lot of people in Waynesville when times were tough and they were in need. I cannot speak of them as separate as they Lived, Loved, and Worked as a devoted couple and team. I wish I could follow in those footsteps. They have my respect and admiration.
