

Michiko N. Youmans

October 2, 1936 - December 1, 2019

Michiko (nee Nakandakari) Youmans, 83, of Colorado Springs died at home with family on December 1, 2019.

She had dedicated her life to her husband, her family, Eastern Star, and her Christian faith. Michiko was a homemaker who enjoyed family gatherings for holidays and especially dining out and trying new places to eat. Her favorite things when she was younger were cooking, gardening, and sewing. Later in life she enjoyed watching the Hallmark Channel, shopping for bargains, taste testing at Costco, and going to church.

Michiko was born to Jiro and Kamado Nakandakari on October 2, 1936 in Itoman, Okinawa Japan.

On December 15, 1956 she married Milton Youmans in Naha, Okinawa, in the American Consular Office.

Michiko was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, and an infant son Ian.

Surviving are her children, Michael Youmans of Tulsa, OK; Mary (Mitchell) Linneman of Colorado Springs, CO; grandchildren Miranda Irvin and Micah Linneman of Colorado Springs, CO; great grandchildren August and Marshall

Irvin of Colorado Springs, CO; five sisters, Miyoko, Setsuko, Masako, Matsuyo, and Megumi, all of Okinawa, Japan, as well as a host of other relatives and friends.

Funeral Services with Eastern Star Services will be held at 1 p.m., Monday, Dec. 9, 2019 in Memorial Chapels and Crematory of Waynesville/St. Robert. Burial will follow in Waynesville Memorial Park Cemetery.

Visitation will be held Monday from 11 A.M. until service time at 1 p.m. in the funeral home.
