“ One of my favorite memories of Nathan was when was born he was the tenth grand child of his Stanton grandparents. His grandpa Stanton was very proud he had a red headed grandson. As soon as Nathan was old enough he was fishing, hunting, working on the farm and playing with his grandparents dogs. Sally Jo Stanton Harper

“Nathan was the smiling little nephew that ate my cookies, petted my dog, and made sure I was up to date on the latest episode of the Dukes of Hazard. Life took us in different directions, but I'll never lose the image of that lovable kid. Nathan now rests easy, wrapped in the wings of angels.

My love and sympathy to Danny, Bonnie and Cameron, and condolences to all those that Nathan loved. Joyce Kerr

“I think one of my favorite memories was when I was a senior in high school and I had a rental while my car was in the shop and our friend Annie wanted to drive it so Nate rode with her to the gas station and left me at Evergreen church with the keys to HIS truck. He may or may not have threatened my life if anything happened to the truck while he was gone. Haha. He knew I had wanted to drive it for the longest time and I finally had my chance. But I ended up being to chicken to leave the parking lot in case something happened to it. He got a good laugh out of it.

“ My favorite memory of Nathan is from 1989. We were staying at a resort on Table Rock Lake when he and his family came down to visit for the day. Nathan, my nephew, was 9 or 10 years old. There was a large pond on the grounds and I gave Nathan a small rod n’ reel to fish the pond. He caught a 5 lb. carp and had a big time reeling it in. The resort manager took a photo of Nathan and his fish and posted it on their brag board. Nathan was a proud little boy that day. It is difficult to realize that little boy is gone.

Bonnie, Danny, Cameron, I am so sorry. I love you all.
