“ Our hearts go out to each and every one of your family members. Nathan was a good friend to our family and always had us laughing at one of his jokes. He was such a unique man and friend who will be missed dearly. May time heal your hearts and minds and may Nathan forever be in our thoughts. Nathan...we will be seeing you soon...##imported-begin##Earnie, Phillip, and Debbie Mentola##imported-end##

“ Steve, Cheryl and the Dalgetty Family: I offer my sincere condolence for your loss. Though I knew Nathen only briefly, he was a pleasure to be around, was funloving and respectful and I appreciated his attitude. I know his loss must be extremely hard, and at this time words of comfort may seem of little help. God has given us his promise that you will see Nathan again, and until that time, God has given us a memory to remember Nathan as he was to each of us.##imported-begin##Ollie Jackson##imported-end##

“ Cheryl, Steve and kids, as you know there are no words to ease the pain in your hearts. Just always remember that we loved Nathan just like he was part of our family and tried to treat him with the respect that he disearved. My heart is broken too as is Danny's. We will remember him with great love and respect.##imported-begin##Dan & Pam Woodin##imported-end##

“ Nathan stories! Oh yes, we all have them! Growing up in the elbow with Nathan Dalghetty...we ALL have stories. "Shaniqua" Thompson, Kevin Thompson, Sammy McBride, Nikki Morgan, Julia West, Lisa...can't remember her last name....Adrian, Dustin, the Kingsley boys, the Ruiz's...my goodness those were some fun years. I miss those days...and I'll miss you ol' buddy.##imported-begin##Justin##imported-end##

“ It's still so hard to believe. All of us kids used to hang out and play together...riding our bikes, fishing, sledding. I just can't believe this has happened! I'll forever have fond memories of you, Nathan...from those crazy bus rides to trying to get my dog in the boat and having her tip you overboard...to that day we all went sledding over at Kevin Thompson's house and you and I hit the tree. Adrian, you and your family are in my prayers. God Bless.##imported-begin##Sammye Lawson (McBride)##imported-end##

“ I was so shocked to hear Nathan was missing, and I've moved away from that town, The Black Hole we all called it. My preayers go out to Nathans Family and his Children. Even though i never knew you all Nathan was my brother Earnie Mentola's friend and very funny, respectful and polite to me and my daughters. I remember many nights i would hear a knock at the door and it would be my brother and all his friends Nathan included wanting some of my homemade Biscuit and Gravy... He was a good guy, and i pray to the lord above you find peace and justice among all this....##imported-begin##Bonnie Mentola##imported-end##
