

Nellie Ann Wilson

November 12, 1917 - February 16, 2014

Nellie Ann Wilson was born November 12, 1917, to the late John and Lena Johnston in Eugene, Missouri. On April 12, 1936 she was united in marriage to the late Woodrow Wilson. They were blessed with their only child, Thelma June (Wilson) Eubanks, who now resides with her husband, Henry "Hank" Eubanks, in St. Robert, Missouri.

Nellie was a hard worker, spending most of her adult life employed as a factory worker. Her favorite pastime was fishing and camping out at Tuscumbia Park, enjoying those fun times with her brother Ben and sister "Stellie." She also loved working in her garden and canning vegetables. Additionally, she made a "killer" hot relish that she shared with many people. Nellie enjoyed all kinds of music, but her favorites were bluegrass and country.

Some of the most precious memories of Nellie were those Sunday dinners she prepared for her family, especially her delicious fried chicken.

Nellie went home to be with her Lord at 10:32 a.m. Sunday, February 17, 2014 in the Sunset Village of the Ozarks of St. Robert, Missouri having attained the age of 96 years.

Nellie leaves to cherish her memories, her daughter, Thelma June. Two grandchildren, Brenda Kinchen of Jefferson City, and Kevin (Rae Ann)

Henson of Richland. Four great grandchildren, Angie, Jason, Shawn, and Seth. Five great-great grandchildren; several nieces and nephews and a host of other beloved relatives.

In addition to her parents, Nellie was preceded in death by her husband, Woodrow, two brothers, Johnny and Ben, three sisters, Margie, Ora, and Estella, and one grandson, Erick Eubanks.
