“ I met Wayne during the production of the Pulaski Co. Fine Arts "Wizard of Oz". I was the "Tin Man". Later, we both attended the Methodist Church and saw each other often. He was a fine fellow with a good sense of humor. We spoke often and laughed. We talked about Blythe just 2 wks. ago. My name is David Jackson.

Wayne and I were in the Lyric Live Theater together for several years along with his daughters and late wife, Carolyn. Wayne and the whole family were great folks! Wayne will be missed by all who cared about him. Frank Bridges

“ Evelyn is the child of Wayne who may remember me, Cynthia Bolinger and my husband Dave. I remember Wayne fondly from our friendship at the Methodist Church and his participation in the Pulaski Fine Arts production of Wizard of Oz. Wayne was kind and had a fine sense of humor. We moved away from Waynesville in 2004 but we remember our friend there so often. Hello Evelyn, perhaps you would remember me. I played the good witch in Wizard of Oz and love wearing my fancy pink satin dress. I also remember your mother fondly and appreciated her accompaniment on the piano.
