Pat, may you rest in peace. You and your family were our neighbors and our friends for a few years. We really hated when y'all moved. We didn't see y'all much after that but thought of y'all often. You were really a great man to know. Fly high Pat! You will be missed.

“ This was Pat Olson: My brother, my idol, my inspiration and my only connection to people our age that knew how to live. He did it well and was full of life. It pains me to know I will not hear his voice again. I will struggle every day just wondering if he approves of my life? He was always up lifting and full of energy. We lost touch for a bit and that bothers me. But people grow up and apart as life goes. I will miss his positive and most funny short wise cracks. We used to talk in wise crack sentences to each other because we were brothers that thought alot alike on some things. Why he is gone is beyond my scope of understanding and I wish I could have talked to him one last time. You will be sadly missed by Tracy , Lynne Ann and all of our family and me of course. RIP Pat Olson BIG O

My sympathies and sorrows to the Olson family. He was taken away from us way to young. He has shared so much to this world that he will be sorely missed. I admired Pat for his generosity and kindness. He was truly a good friend who opened his arms to me and always provided his friendship. "Go Big Blue Pat!!"

“ *Rest easy my Brother, you left us too dang early. I enjoyed our talks about how many times you tried to get into my silver Altima as it was exactly like yours.
You were a good man.
May the Lord Jesus Christ be with your family.*

“ I cannot begin to express my sadness for the Olson family, & for the communities that loved Pat so much. In his hometown we called him Big O! He was very popular in school. He was a phenominal basketball player! Many of us shared some really great times with Pat. He is forever in our hearts... We will cherish those memories always...
