“ Pat, you had an amazing run with Jesus here. It was an honor to jog alongside you from time to time, brother in Christ. You quickly sprinted past me in the "race marked out for us," as Hebrews 12 so eloquently describes it. I'm so glad for you--you're finally seeing Jesus face to to face!--but I admit I selfishly miss you here. I was looking forward to the conversation I hoped we would have with my husband when he got back from rehab. Well, that's not going to happen, brother, but how wonderful it was to share the good news with you that he went there on May 21. You, my friend, were praising the Lord that it happened before it happened. Man...you were always such an encouragement to me while saying I was encouraging you! So many wonderful God-stories you shared. I should write as many as I can remember down. Wish I'd thought to do that before you went home. I'm so thankful Jesus saw to it that you became my plumber 17 years ago. You ended up being such a dear brother and friend. I pray I become even half the Christian you were! Till we meet again, Pat. I love you, bro, and because of you I love Jesus more.###imported-begin###Jenny S.###imported-end##

“ I had the pleasure of meeting Pat several years ago and loved his sense of humor. In fact, I called him 'my bundle of joy'. It was great to meet up with him not too long ago and discover he had given his life to the Lord and he would light up talking about it. I know we're selfish and would love to have kept him here, but he is celebrating in a place that we can only dream of. With much admiration!###imported-begin###Charlotte Lewis Divincen###imported-end##

“ Pat was our friend, our plumber, our city councilman and our prayer warrior.

He was a mentor for me on Council, as well as a supporter on many good projects for the City of Waynesville. I will miss his advice and sense of humor.

Pat went way too young. I send my love and support to his family.###imported-begin###Luge and Paul Hardman###imported-end##

“ Pat was a man you knew had truly experienced the grace of Jesus Christ in his life. He made sure he told you that and he always had a smile and a kind spirit to back it up. I didn't know Pat as well as others, but he attended our church for a short time and did a plumbing job for me once(at a very low cost!). I am sure Pat is home with his Lord and I look forward to seeing him again one day!##imported-begin##Pastor Jeff Combs##imported-end##

“ I knew Pat since the 60's and we became very good friends, we hung out together every day and we even moved to Eldon, MO, in 1970 to attend a Tech School. After we graduated we lost touch over the years I thought of him often and the fun we had together while growing up. It was an honor to have him as a friend. I know Pat is in heaven, and God bless him and the one's he left behind .##imported-begin##George Adams##imported-end##

“ To hear of your lost has sadden us. Our prayers and love are with you. God created humans with a yearning to live forever. The Bible says that he put “ a sense of eternity in their hearts.” Ecclesiastes 3:11. Our first parents, Adam & Eve, were created perfect, with no defect in mind or body. (Deuteronomy 32:4) Imagine-no chronic aches and pain, no morbid fear or anxieties! Why, then do we die?##imported-begin##Lee & Irene Keyes##imported-end##

“ I am very sad to hear of Pat's passing. I have known him since I was a small child at Penrod's. As one of the older kids, he was always so nice to those of us that were a few years younger. In recent years, he helped me with a huge plumbing mess and being the kind, generous person he was, he didn't charge me even close to what he should have. He was one of God's Angels on Earth and is now singing with God's Angels in Heaven. Rest in Peace, my friend.##imported-begin##Theresa Hill##imported-end##
