For those of us in Army CID, we know what an exceptional CID Agent Phil was. There aren't too many like him who can do the job as well as he did. My condolences to Paula and the members of the Tackett family. May CW5 (Retired) Philip Eugene Tackett rest in peace.

“ Phil was always the first to congratulate or offer assistance if he thought you were in need, I always look forward to attending an upcoming AMM and visiting with old friends. I will miss our visits and conversations about family, friends and old times. Farewell my friend! We will resume our conversations at another time in a better place.

Phil was my mentor, confidant, partner in crime, and for awhile - my neighbor. He is one of the best people I've ever known, and I will miss him tremendously. His impact on my career was not unique - he had that impact on many other lives & careers. My family's world is a better place because Phil was in it. God bless, and heartfelt condolences from the Grants to the Tackett's..

A truly exceptional person. In spite of myriad accomplishments, Phil remained humble, caring about others more than himself. I am thankful to have had the opportunity to see him and speak with him at the CIDAA AGM last September. Condolences to Mrs. Tackett and family.
