“ My heart goes out to the Burkhart family I am so sorry for your loss. Our sons played football together many times over the years. Talking at football practice or after games Rachael was always so nice and friendly and proud of her boys. She was a wonderful mother and devoted to her sons. I will keep the family in my prayers. Remember that you will see her again. With my deepest sympathy~Carrie Hall

“ I am so saddened to hear of the passing of Rachael. We got to know her when our families lived in Hanua, Germany serving with the US Military. As i am sure you all know Rachael was such a sweet person always ready to help others. She was spiritual, and very talented. Her family and music were her loves. She loved people, and always ready to share her talents, i remember how patient and encouraging she was as she tried to teach me to play the piano. She had a smile for everyone. I hope that somehow she knows how much she was loved and appreciated. My thought and prayers are with her family. Her forever friend. Sue [Helfrich]
