“ Dad,
I am so grateful to you. I have respect for the man that you was.
And the kind hearted things that you did. You had a big heart.
All of your life you worked for your family. You taught me and helped me to grow. You were the man I knew I could lean on. You was my rock.
You gave me your love and affection. And always remained by my side.
All my life, DAD I will be thankful. Love you DAD, Rest In Peace.
Love your daughter, Sandy

“ Once at Dollar General, the card reader kept having a problem reading my debit card. Dickie was behind me, and when I said I would have to put everything back because I had neither cash or a checkbook with me, Dickie said, “Here, let me pay for it.” I objected; he insisted. And so he paid for them. I took him a check to the car lot the same day. He said I didn’t have to be in such a hurry! He was a fine man, and I will miss seeing him. God bless each of you.
