“ Dear brother. I cannot express what a loss this is for us in the emergency services community, and for myself personally. I am thankful for the conversations, for the opportunity to have worked with you, and see the magnitude of your heart of gold, and your desire to serve and care for all of those around you. We're going to miss you, I'm going to miss you, I love you and I can't wait to see you again in heaven. Rest easy, my friend, we've got it from here.
