“ My dear special Brother. You were the sunshine in my life from first meeting in 1961. YOU Raymond and I had so much fun doing things together going places together, and the flowers....I know you got them to tease Raymond but I got to enjoy them...you always brought me flowers to arrange, Raymond got things to plant. I was the winner. You truly were the Brother here, when the Army didn't have you in another post, but we wrote then. You will be so missed but I'm sure you and Raymond will always share His BIRTHDAY together. May you Brothers rest in peace always remember how much I love you And Den .
