“ We will miss you Uncle Roy. We are thinking of you Aunt Linda, and the rest of the family. Love to all. Thoughts and prayers to everyone.

I will always remember the time close to Christmas 1974 when we went to visit you. You were trying to put a foosball table together. Chuck started to help you. Then, your piece of cb equipment started smoking as you and Chuck were putting together the foosball table . You dumped your cup of coffee on it to stop it from smoking. Went right back to putting the game table together. You guys did get the table put together.

“ My Daddy on his horse, Merry Legs. He made a fine cowboy! He had a voice like Sam Elliott & when he spoke, people listened. He sang to my Mommy all the time, usually Conway Twitty or Johnny Cash. I don't remember him ever raising his voice to my Mom. He was a paratrooper in the Army and a tough soldier. He was a Mechanical Engineer by trade, but always a cowboy at heart. About 15 years ago, he got his dream, him and Mommy bought their horse farm. That farm instantly became our family home, because it was where our hearts were. If you were sick or just not feeling up to par, it was the place to go. So peaceful & soothing, which is where my Daddy passed. We kept his bed by the picture window so that he could look out and view his dream with Mommy sitting by his side. Heaven hasn't gained my Daddy yet, because I don't believe that he would enter the Pearly Gates without my Mommy by his side. So he'll be waiting until it's time. I love you more Daddy!
