Just watch the video on Roy. Your dad and I grew up In the same neighborhood. In fact his home place on Broad Street has been remodeled and looks beautiful on the outside. Your mother and I were best friends. Have missed your Dad's visits. He said last time he was here that it would be his last visit. His pictures from high school brought back memories. He was a great athletic. I would guess that is one reason he finished school even though he was older than his classmates. There was no man for your Mom other than Roy. Your Mom was the sweetest person. As a child one of greatest memories was visiting your Mom and your Grandmother. Joe was always on a job somewhere. We would play "jacks" on a school night. Your Mom is responsible for me accepting Christ and joining the church. She was such a beautiful woman. Now they are reunited. You have been blessed with such Godly parents.
