“ I am so sorry for your loss of Rick. My mother used to deliver mail and spoke fondly of working with him. I met him several times and he was always so cheerful. He told me he was from the smallest town in the United States... Vergennes, Vermont. I now live##imported-begin##Debbie Basford##imported-end##

“ Joyce, I just heard about Rick's services on the radio this morning on the way to my school. My heart was saddened for you. No one knows how it hurts, even when he's not suffering anymore, unless they have been through it. I lift you up in my prayers toda##imported-begin##Traci Brown##imported-end##
