“ I met Sharon the first time when I went to our cancer survivor dinner. What a fun person to be around. Second time I meet her was in the chemo room. I remember , because she said... do you think that your cup is big enough. She made me laugh , such a fun, pleasant person. My deepest condolences to the family.

“ Stacey, Chad and Carly, so sorry for your loss. My very best memory of your Mom is the awesome cakes she used to bake. She actually baked wedding cakes for both my girls.

“ Sharon could bring life to any room with her beautiful smile. Even with all her pain and suffering she was a very caring and compassionate person. I feel very blessed for having the privilege to get to know Sharon. She always made my day a little brighter each time I saw her.
