I had Sharon's daughter Audrey in my Third Grade Class at Crocker School. Sharon always sent cookies for our class parties. After Audrey died in a car accident, Sharon and her husband took on the hard responsibilities of raising the Grandchildren. Then Sharon's husband died. Times became very hard for Sharon, but she never stopped going to church and always went as much as she could. I know God kept her going. Sharon and Audrey made crafts, such as dolls that she sold all over the United States. They had a wonderful business going until Audrey's death. Sharon tried to keep the business going but was unable to do so. Sharon always had an upbeat personality. She always gave you a Big Smile and a Happy Hello where ever she saw you and where ever she went. I will miss seeing Sharon's big smile, but I'll see her again in Heaven.
