She was a great Gardner, and shared fruits of her labor with her many friends. A dear friend of Susan's stated that she gave more of herself than she ever got in return. Susan just loved life and people which it made it truly easy for her to pour into others around her.

Susan was a life time member of the FORR L/28 - Freedom of Road Riders and held numerous offices down through the years. She loved going to Rallies! The love of the open road and riding her Harley brought Susan immense joy and pleasure. You might see her side car with a couple of her beloved grandkids, her dog, Sissy, or just packed full of things needed for a long road trip. Susan had the gift of gab and treasured times spent with her family and many friends.

She was preceded in death by her birth parents Richard Eugene Cowan, and Bobilea Sue (McCrum) Cowan; and her adopted father Robert Howard.

“ Momma Sue as I called her was the most special of souls. I practically lived at her home growing up. From Saturday afternoons at the antique store to a hundred overnights with Becckiey, Sue was another mom to me. She gave the very best advice and loved me even when no one did. In adult life there were still sleep overs at her house and so many memories. I will miss you always. Sew me something special up there. LUVU
