

Susan "Susie" Aimee Bailey

September 9, 1968 - December 12, 2015

Susan Aimee Bailey, daughter of the late Gary Leigh and Harriet Marie (Lenn) Kindler, was born September 9, 1968, in Kaneohe, Hawaii. However, her father, a United States Marine, relocated her family to Oceanside, California, where "Susie," as she is known by, went to school, graduating from Oceanside High School in 1986.

Soon, Susie met and fell in love with a handsome young Marine, Harry Anthony Bailey, Jr. and on August 31, 1991, she married the love of her life in Oceanside, California. Their union was later blessed by God with three beautiful children, Aimee Marie, Ciara Elizabeth, and Garrett Lowell.

Harry and Susie moved their little family fourteen times during Harry's military career before finally being stationed at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri. Loving the area so much, the couple decided to purchase a small farm near Richland in 2005, where Susie could finish homeschooling their children, as well as raise horses and other animals.

Susie loved her role as a loving wife and mother, considering it to be the most important job one could ever have. Susie's mission in life was to raise happy, healthy children as they were her treasures in this life.

She had many talents, yet Susie had a humble spirit. She enjoyed horseback riding. She was committed to living an organic lifestyle. Being very health conscious, the family planted their own garden and also raised various kinds of farm animals including dairy goats, which kept them busy milking. Susie was an herbalist; she made her own soap and even had a grain mill that she used to make her own flour, which in turn provided the family with hot, homemade bread. Susie loved cooking from scratch and created wonderful, homemade gourmet meals by just using things they had grown. She truly embodied a pioneer woman's lifestyle.

Susie made a profession of faith in Christ and was a devoted Christian woman. She was a member of First Baptist Church of Richland. Having a servant's heart, Susie was active in her church, always ready to help with any church ministries. She loved her Lord, and her church family was very important to her.

Surrounded by her loving family, Susie was gently carried away to her heavenly home by the Lord on the evening of December 12, 2015, having attained the age of 47 years. Though Susie is gone from our sight, she will always remain in the hearts of all those who knew and loved her.

Susie was preceded in death by her parents, Gary and "Sue" Kindler.

Susie leaves to cherish her memory her loving husband, Harry Anthony Bailey Jr., of Richland, MO, three children: Aimee Marie Bailey of Columbia, MO, Ciara Elizabeth Bailey, and Garrett Lowell Bailey both of the home; three siblings: Jeffery Kindler (Lily) of Yuma, AZ, Anna Kindler (David) of Fallbrook, CA and Kenneth Kindler (Lynn) of Sebastian, FL; her father and step-mother-in-law's: Harry and Judy Bailey of Centre, AL; mother-in-law: Carol Howell of Punta Gorda, FL; several nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Services were held at 1:30 p.m., Friday December 18, 2015 in the First Baptist Church of Richland with Pastor Bob Lilly officiating. Pianist, Marleen Brown played while the congregation sang "Victory in Jesus," "When We All Get To Heaven," and "Jesus Paid It All." A graveside followed at 3:00 p.m., in the Missouri Veterans Cemetery, Waynesville, Missouri.

Services were under the direction of Memorial Chapel of Richland.

Memorial contributions may be made in memory of Susie Bailey to the First Baptist Church of Richland and may be left at the church or at the Memorial Chapel of Richland funeral home.

“ Susie, I took ur Grandma to the beauty shop to have her hair done today, I didn't tell her that ur service was today so when I picked her up she said "Carol was doing my hair and all of a sudden I had this strange feeling, it was a good feeling but it came over me and then it was gone", When we got home I showed her ur Obit. she laugh then cried and said "that was my lil susie" Susie thank u for easing ur Grandma pain, she has been so down and depressed since u left, but on the flip side she did say u were going to have ur hands full up there with ur Grandpa and ur mom and dad. You were such an amazing woman Susie I proud that u r my niece, I wish we stayed in touch more often, u will be missed and u were sooo loved.

“ Heaven is richer, but the world is definitely poorer having lost Susie. Thank you for so many wonderful memories, my smart, beautiful, precious friend. Thank you for the best baby shower ever, for letting us be a part of the reaffirmation of your wedding vows, for the surprise visit when David was deployed, for my beautiful Christmas wreath, for remembering I love ladybugs, for some of my favorite recipes. Thank you for listening to me complain, for encouraging me and for praying with and for me, for being a sister in Christ. I will miss you until we meet again.

“ I am just beyond sad....So many wonderful memories with this amazing woman. We were neighbors, friends and Marine wives together.....We raised our children, celebrated Thanksgivings together (Oh that sweet potato casserole we STILL make with your name on it), we cooked together and did Bible study together. I am sorry we had lost touch over the past few years, however I keep a picture of you always on my dresser.....Some people leave indelible marks on your life and Susie Bailey you did mine. I wish I had gotten to laugh or pray with you one more time.....See you again someday my dear friend. I love you! Ellen Holmes Steeves-LeBlanc, Kenneth, Corrine & Claire LeBlanc & John LeBlanc

“ Ms. Susie was such an encouragement to me when I got married. She started a cookbook for me that I use everyday now. Susie, Ciara and Aimee wrote a favorite recipe down and included it in the book. I use that cookbook and think of what a kind and encouraging friend Susie was to me. She showed Christ's love to me and for that- I'm so thankful!!!!

We loved dear Susie!
Because of her faith in Jesus Christ, she had comfort in her affliction
- His promise gave her life.

gives me life."

“ I will miss Susie, she was a fellow goat and sheep lover....we talked almost daily for the past six months....I kept praying for her to beat this cancer, we don't always get what we pray for...I know that her children were her greatest accomplishment and that her only regret in leaving this world so early was having to leave them behind....I know she was hurting a lot...she is at peace now....prayers to her family.

“ My heart aches after learning that Susie has passed away. She was my childhood best friend. I haven't seen her for years but enjoyed her life through Facebook and am honored that we were able to reconnect. My deepest condolences to Harry, their three lovely children and the Kindler family. I'm sure she will truly be missed by many. I've posted a few photos of our time together.

“ My Woosie. My best friend. A great Mom, as you can see from her children. And an awesome Marine Corps wife!! She and I prayed together one night and she asked Jesus to come in to her heart and forgive her of her sins. I know I will see her in heaven one day. She took care of me when I was hurt, and never gave up on me when I screwed up alot. She always kept in touch with my Mom when I was unreachable. As I said, my best friend. Horses were our passion when we became friends, and I still ca'nt believe she came to like goats!! Anyway, I am so thankful that she and Anthony married. He was her rock. With Anthony, my woosie found love, purpose, and a life long partner. Aimee, Ciara, and Garret are the finest young'uns I have ever known. I wo'nt take up too much space, but when we were milking goats last Monday, I in my rough Marine Corps fassion, I asked her that when she was in heaven and got word that I was comming to please leave the gate open for me because I did'nt want to have to climb the fence or pick the lock. I have alot of stories, but those are best left for her kids. Susie, I will miss you, but you did alot of good and made an impact on alot of peoples lives.

Sempre Fi Hon!!

May even show up with a scooby snack
