

Tamera Annette Wagner

June 17, 1961 - June 7, 2016

Tamera Annette Wagner, daughter of Oliver Goldsmith Thomson and Janet Sue (Vandergriff) Thomson, was born June 17, 1961 in Ft. Leonard Wood, Missouri.

Due to her father being in the military, Tamera and the family were transferred to different duty stations, but she spent the majority of her growing up years in Mississippi and graduated from St. Martin High School in Ocean Springs, Mississippi.

On September 7, 1979, Tamera was united in marriage to Donald Edward Sapp in Biloxi and two children were born to this union, Angela and Jason.

On April 14, 2000, Tamera was united in marriage to Dana Lynn Wagner in Ft. Smith, Arkansas.

While living in Mississippi, Tamera worked as a bookkeeper and a pharmacy assistant.

In her spare time, Tamera enjoyed sewing, cross stitching, and doing wood working with her dad. She loved animals and also liked listening to the One Arm Bandit. She was an avid collector of many things and loved going to yard sales and finding a good bargain. Her favorite thing to do was to spend time with her children and grandchildren.

As a young girl, Tamera grew up in church and was very active. She sang on the church radio broadcast and in the church choir. In her later years when her health permitted, Tamera attended the Pentecostal church in Lebanon. Tamera was a very giving person and donated to several clubs and organizations.

Tamera went home to be with her Lord Tuesday, June 7, 2016 in her home having attained the age of 54 years. She will be sadly missed, but fondly remembered by all those that knew and loved her.
