

Terry Allen Shultz

July 17, 1955 - March 23, 2026

Terry Allen Shultz, 70, of Laquey, Missouri, a devoted husband, father, grandfather, local business owner, and proud cattle farmer, passed away Monday, March 23, 2026, at his home

Terry is survived by his beloved wife, Sonya “Pepper” Shultz; his two children, John Caleb Shultz (Jessie) of St. Charles, Missouri, and Cassandra “Cassie” Bolin (Chad) of Laquey, Missouri; and his cherished grandchildren, Nora and Henry. He is also survived by three brothers, Gary Shultz (Lucie) of Osage Beach, Missouri, Timothy “Tim” Shultz (Lisa) of Springfield, Missouri, and John David Shultz of Springfield, Missouri; his sister-in-law, Sandra Claxton of Laquey, Missouri; as well as many nieces, nephews, extended family members, and friends.

Terry was the second of four sons, raised in a life that blended hard work on the farm with the family’s Texaco business. He remained true to those roots his entire life. While he took pride in his work in town, his heart always belonged to the farm.

Terry lived big. He filled rooms with laughter and carried a smile that showed up early and stayed late. He found joy in the simple, sacred details of life: the bawl of a newborn calf, the ripple of water over a shoal, the creak of leather in an early morning roundup, and the clean lines of a freshly cut hayfield.

He was a man who showed up for people. Terry helped countless travelers and neighbors along the way—fixing a tire, sharing a meal, offering a place to rest, or simply giving someone a moment of kindness when they needed it most. He had a gift for reading people and a willingness to act on what he saw.

More than anything, Terry loved being with people. Whether it was lifelong friends, family, or someone he had just met, he believed life was meant to be shared. Any excuse for a gathering was a good one in his book.

Terry's life is a reminder to all of us: tomorrow is never promised, so live fully today—with a big heart and an even bigger smile.

In the days following his passing, it has become clear just how many lives Terry touched by living a “regular” life. The outpouring of love is a testament to the way he lived—generously, joyfully, and always with others in mind. He would have wanted to greet each of you, shake your hand, and thank you personally. May we all go forward and strive to live an extraordinary “regular” life as Terry taught us how.

Memorial contributions may be made in memory of Terry Shultz and may be left at Memorial Chapels and Crematory of Waynesville / St. Robert.

“ Terry “Dog” Shultz was a unique, interesting, and incredibly special human being. Like most people of great depth, he’d challenge you to demonstrate your value, while always providing support. Dog made a lot of boys stronger men, and numerous others better people. I for one was very fortunate to call him brother and friend. God Bless the entire Schulz family!

“ I first came to know Terry professionally, but he soon became more than a client - he was a friend. I liked him from the first time we met, in fact, he was one of the most likeable people I ever knew. The obituary more eloquently captures who he was than I could ever say. I don't think I could improve on it one bit. I will miss him.

“ Terry was a stand-up guy. He always treated me, and those around me, with fairness and kindness. A lot of our family's float trip memories are thanks to Terry letting us access his land to get to the river. You are going to be missed by many Terry. My condolences to his family and to everyone who loves him. Rest in peace.

“ I have known Terry since 1973 when his brother married my sister. I always thought Terry was a great guy, and though we didn't have any connection over the years (except our nephew Jeffrey's death) I still remember him as a great guy. My sincere condolences to his family, especially Paul, my nephew.

“ Terry was definitely one of a kind, to say that they broke the mold would be an understatement for sure, I was a fraternity brother for several years with TS, he was always funny and entertaining but at the same time you always knew he would do whatever needed done if you asked him for help. I love the profile pic, rest in peace Terry.

Remembering the good times going back to High School days with Terry (we were voted the most comical ones) and then getting together to plan our "50th WHS Class Reunion" was a blast of the past...all these memories that keep us smiling at this time of his witty sense of humor. We will miss you for sure..and I am sure Joe Rasmussen will be with you too. Our thoughts and prayers to his family at this time of grief.
and loss. 🙏
