“ The real Captain America! He always did what was he thought was the right thing to do. A man of his word. God fearing Christian. He provide no matter the circumstance for his family. He loved his God, fought for his country, and married his high school sweetheart. He was a great grandfather and truly my favorite soul on this planet. I had all questions and he had all the answers. Lol my own personal liaison, but know I can only search the good book. He was like a little John Wayne mixed with some johnny cash. After his funeral it started to storm really bad ANF the Robidoux flooded the town. He was my father truly, because I try to follow his ethos.

Here is some ol school wisdom he use to drop on me. He'd always say, "you never listen to what I say, it just goes in one ear and out the other! Don't back talk your elders, takes a bigger man to walk away, a man is only as good as his world, and don't believe anything you hear and only half of what you see, open the door for your grandma, never hit a woman, to be thankful for what little or much you got, and always say sir and ma'am." I had so many more question that need his wisdom. One day I pray to the heavens that I'm a man as wise as him. Rip grandpa-mo. I must be crazy but I still feel you looking out for me still. He was one of earths greatest warriors. He was the only man I ever have loved.
