

Tiffany Nichole Stansell

April 7, 1995 - August 18, 2020

As a young girl, Tiffany grew up in the Waynesville area and attended school in the Laquey R-V School District where she played volleyball and soccer.

Tiffany became a mother to three children: Emma Rose, Lillian Vaughn and Kenneth Lee. They were her pride and joy and she loved being able to stay at home and raise her children. She loved spending time with her babies.

In her spare time, Tiffany enjoyed going to the river, hanging out with her friends, doing her hair and makeup and making tik-tok videos. She was also an avid Lord of the Rings fan. She loved the trilogy and watched it nonstop. She was very talented when it came to art and did some beautiful drawings. Tiffany also had a funny and charismatic side to her and was best known for being able to peel a banana with her toes, just like a monkey. She loved to make people laugh and gave the BEST hugs.

Tiffany will be sadly missed, but fondly remembered by all those who knew and loved her. She leaves to cherish her memory, her parents: Karen Price of

“ I pre-apologize if this is offensive and please delete if it is: but I want to tell my story from the beginning <3

Truth is when I first met Tiffany in high school we hated each other. For absolutely no good reason, We were both sweet on the same boy (of course) and to be honest I think we were just too much alike and we resented each other for that. We had all the same friends, grew up in the same area but just never connected. It wasn't until after high school that we reconnected. we ran into each other on a random day a few years back and had a great time. Got to talking after that and I remember thinking ' we should have been friends all along this chicks awesome' made all these plans to hang out but life kept getting in the way like it usually does. Saw each other a few times out and about and I gradually had the privilege to see first hand what a beautiful person she was, inside and out. We have a million memories, same place same time, but not as the friends we became to be later in life. I keep thinking I know how short life can be, but it seems to surprise me every single time. Heaven gained an angel for sure, and I know without a doubt she's making them smile right now just the way she made me. My sincere condolences to the family <3

“ Tiffany was a lot of fun to hang out with in high school. I was super jealous of her style and charisma and gorgeous smile when I was a kid, and she tipped me off to great music. We weren't close and didn't keep in touch, and I regret never at least looking her back up on Facebook. But I have no doubt she was just as funny and energetic out of school as she was in. My thoughts are with her family and friends.
