“ So sorry to hear about Tony. Back in the day, the Trotter Brothers and the Moore Brothers ran together. We were the best of friends. I loved his mother Gracie just as much as my own mother. Lord, that woman could cook. Oh the stories I could tell about Waynesville, Mo back in the 1970s. I can hear Tony laughing with that certain laugh that only Tony had. Rest in peace brother. My condolences also go out to Lee and Gracie.

“ *Tony and I shared 10 years of our lives together. Although we had our ups and downs, Tony was truly the love of my life! He carried the appearance of being hard and mean to protect himself. However, I got to know Tony for who he was.. He had a huge heart and was full of compassion for those he cared about. He was full of wit and a lot of fun to be with. You would always see him being the "life of the party"!
Although things didn't work out for us as we had planned, Tony and I forever remained friends and kept in touch with each other. My heart is so heavy and broken to pieces right now! I'm going to miss his quotes of wisdom as well as all that charm! Rest in peace Tony until we meet again my love!*
