

Velma Lee Zarccone

August 19, 1933 - May 5, 2015

Velma Lee Zarccone was born August 19, 1933 in Tribune, Missouri in Pulaski County. She was one of eleven children born to the union of the late Chester and Mary (Schultz) Wallace.

Velma was united in marriage to Salvatore Zarccone Jr., on August 9, 1959 in Waynesville, Missouri.

Velma passed away May 5, 2015 in Mercy Hospital of Springfield, Missouri at the age of 81.

She spent her life being the most loving, caring, and comforting wife, mother, grandmother, and great grandmother that anyone could hope for. She opened her home to all each week for "Sunday Dinner" and particularly looked forward to holding, rocking, and reading stories to her many grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Velma will be sadly missed but with cherished memories by her five children: Linda (Robert) Perdue, Sharon Zarccone, Tina King, Monica Zarccone, Richard (Shannon) Zarccone all of Waynesville, MO; two sisters: Lillian Gladine Boston of Waynesville, MO and Audra (Jay) O'Malley of Evening Shade, MO; seven grandchildren: John Perdue of Springfield, MO, Jacob (Rhonda) Perdue of Waynesville, MO, Brandi (Matthew) Voigt, Britney (Archie) Jackson of St.

Robert, MO, Corey King, Callie Zarccone, Molly Zarccone of Waynesville, MO; five great-grandchildren: Rylie Marie Voigt of St. Robert, MO, Lillian Perdue of Blue Springs, MO, Kamryn Zarccone, Kendrick Jackson, Kairyn Jackson of St. Robert, MO; nieces, nephews, and many friends.

Velma was preceded in death by her parents, her husband and seven brothers and one sister.

A celebration of life service was held at 1:00 p.m. Friday, May 8, 2015 in the Memorial Chapels and Crematory of Waynesville / St. Robert with Pastor Lindell Shelden officiating. Soloist Becky Lercher sang "Amazing Grace" and the songs "Go Rest High on that Mountain" by Vince Gill, "When I Get Where I'm Going" by Brad Paisley and Dolly Parton and "How Great Thou Art" by Carrie Underwood and Vince Gill were played.

Memorial contributions may be made in memory of Velma Zarccone and may be left at the funeral home.

“ I, JUST found out about your mom!!! I am so sorry to you all!!! Velma was like a mom to me and I loved her very much! She was so funny, and told ya how it was and or how it was going to be. She would make me laugh so hard I would cry she would give me and Monica a hard time about certain things that was so funny. She was quick witted, loved that red hair, and her long lounge gowns. Monica, Richard, Sharon, Tina I am deeply sorry, thank you for sharing your mom with me through the years. She gave good advice and was so loving and caring I adored her so much. Love to you and her grandkids.

“ Today is a sad day for all of us. But as sad as I am, I feel sorry for the people who didn't have the privilege of having Velma in their life. You can't think of her without smiling, because she always made you laugh, usually to the point of tears. With her talent for story-telling, she could tell you about an ordinary trip to the grocery store and it became a hilarious adventure. I didn't get to see her often after leaving the area, but I have no trouble hearing her laughter when I think of her. Even though she's in heaven now, she left us with so many good memories, she'll never be far away.
