One of my favorite memories with Vera was when Mickey Gilley came to the factory. Plant manager wouldn't let the tv cameras inside the plant but told them to go to the cafeteria. Vera loved Mickey and she had her camera there. I told her to go ask him for a picture and she was afraid it would make the plant manager mad. I told her I would go ask, I did and as soon as I did he grabbed me and held me in a very firm gripe and said get your picture. Vera took a picture so did the tv cameras. I had bruises on my arms. Vera gave me the picture, but I was not a fan. Bless you Vera, love you to pieces

Each and Every memory of Vera is a blessing. We met at Pleasant Grove School approx 1949 and growing up in Buckhorn. One day we can smile together again.
