

Vicki Jean Hollaway

November 7, 1950 - January 1, 2020

Vicki Jean Hollaway, daughter of the late John and Carmen (Hicks) Marsala, was born November 7, 1950 in Salinas, California. She passed away Wednesday, January 1, 2020 in the Lebanon North Nursing and Rehab Center of Lebanon, Missouri having attained the age of 69 years.

Vicki grew up in Salinas, California and graduated from Alsisal High School. On November 27, 1973 in Yuma, California, Vicki was united in marriage to William R. Hollaway, Sr. and they shared three children: Jeana L., Billie Jean, and William R., Jr.

From 1981 to 1986, Vicki worked for the Auto Craft Shop on Fort Ord, California as a cashier and clerk.

Vicki's main passion was her family. She loved them dearly and enjoyed spending time with them. According to her family, she was a phenomenal cook and homemaker, who made her home a haven for her family. She especially enjoyed being a grandmother and looked for every opportunity to spend time with her grandkids.

Vicki was also a very good and loyal friend. She was always interested in people and their lives and was a source of encouragement to her family and friends. Vicki also loved all kinds of music and books.

Vicki will be sadly missed, but fondly remembered by all those who knew and loved her. She leaves to cherish her memory, her husband: William Hollaway, Sr. of the home; three children: Jeana Ray of Richland, MO, Billie Jean Hollaway-Brown (Gerald) of Richland, MO and William Hollaway, Jr. of Richland, MO; four grandchildren; one brother: John Marsala (Clare) of the State of Idaho; two sisters: Janet Tucker Nefzger (David) of the State of Idaho and Carla Sullivan (Jim) of Sun Prairie, WI; several nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

In addition to her parents, Vicki was preceded in death by one brother: Robert Marsala; and her best friend: Michelle Conti, whom she considered a sister.

Even though she is gone from our sight, she will live on in our hearts forever.

Services were held at 11:00 a.m. Thursday, January 9, 2020 in the Memorial Chapel of Richland with Pastor Richard Harris officiating. The songs "He Stopped Loving Her Today" by George Jones and "Little Girl Blue" by Janis Joplin were played. Serving as escorts were family and friends. Burial followed in the Missouri Veterans Cemetery of Waynesville. Services were under the direction of Memorial Chapel of Richland.

Memorial contributions may be made in memory of Vicki Hollaway and may be left at Memorial Chapel of Richland.

It was nice to see all of these pictures of our families and friends. There are so many memories in all of these pictures, but most all I would like to say a little something about my sister Vicki "she was a strong person very protective of her family and she never let anyone get anything over on us, she was always right there even if she had to put up her dukes." Rest In Peace Vicki, Love your Little sister Carla

I'm going to add some memories to this tribute. To show a side of how Vicki was. I'm not sure if any of my siblings remember these but I do very clearly. My parents left my two older sisters to watch us while they worked.

The neighbor boy (Bobby Simon) was older than I was he came chasing after me, Vicki came out with a board and hit him over the head and broke his glasses. He never bothered me again.

Then we were out roller skating coming back up the side walk about a block from our house. Vicki thought she was going to put me on her back to help me out. Well she slipped and fell and I ended up hitting my head. I was ok and we skated on home.

Then when we lived on Orchard Ave. we were all outside Vicki got into a confrontation with one of the neighbor kids and they were in the middle of the street getting ready to fight. Dad was inside shaving I ran inside to get him and he had to come out and get her and he still had shaving cream all over his face.

One of Vicki's favorite groups of all times was the Beach Boy's. I can remember when we went to see them at Monte Mart in the Parking lot. Then Dad bought us a surf board we thought we were real surfers.

There are so many memories some of these are funny! Most of all this is how Vicki was and some things I can remember.

Just remember in Heaven no more pain and everyone is young again. Have a good time visiting with the friends and relative we have lost.
