“ I find that the loss of my mom hurts more as time passes and the reality of her being gone from us here sets in. Life really does fly by. I reflect on a fun childhood with holiday gatherings, outdoor activities, living in the country and growing up in a small town full of family and friends. I am thankful for my beautiful mother and the life we led, just sad to see it change and to see my dad having to work at rebuilding his life.

Thanks to everyone who has been so loving and supportive.

I love and miss you so very much mom.

“ As one of the Anderson family, my mother, Mary, was very proud of her large and loving family. I have many fond childhood memories of visiting Aunt Ethel and Uncle Leslie's farm and all the fun we had with the animals, the land, and the music. Violet was always filled with laughter and spirit then and throughout her life. My deepest sympathies.##imported-begin##Janet Charlton##imported-end##
