

William Allen Redmond

November 3, 1977 - October 11, 2014

William Allen Redmond, son of Wayne Edward and Hildegard Katharina (Franz) Redmond, was born November 3, 1977 in San Francisco, California. Due to his father being in the military, William and the family moved and traveled around the world and eventually settled in the Waynesville / St. Robert area in 1985.

He started working as a cab driver for the Post Cab Company and was employed with them for several years. He was also known for his tattoo art work and worked in many of the tattoo shops in the Waynesville / St. Robert area.

William was a very active person. In his spare time, he enjoyed being outdoors while fishing, surfing, snowboarding, bike riding, white water rafting and 4-wheeling. He was also very creative and was a talented artist. He loved to spend time with his family and friends. For the last 18 years, William had been struggling with medical bi-polarism and took great solace in his family and friends helping him.

William leaves to cherish his memory his parents: Wayne and Hildegard Redmond of St. Robert, MO; two brothers: Johannes Redmond, of Aurora, CO and Robert Redmond of St. Robert, MO; niece Kylie and nephew Dylan; and girlfriend: Traci Simpson of Waynesville, MO.

“ When we were little kids living in Germany, we used to play two cassette tapes over and over.... Rip Van Winkle and Having Fun with Ernie and Bert. Instead of going to sleep, we would go on tiger hunts, sing along with the tapes and then when we finally had to turn the lights out, we would listen to the story of Rip Van Winkle....we could still quote it as adults.
