“ Jennifer and kids,

I am SO sorry to hear of the passing of your husband. I think a whole lot of your family. I loved your kids while they were in my class (when I was Miss McBride) and continue to be amazed (and love them) as I see how much they grew up while you were in Utah. You and your husband meant a lot to Dixon Elementary. Whether it was both of you helping out in the classroom, William coaching soccer, or through your six kids-just about each of us here at DES has loved and appreciated you.

I wanted so much to be at his visitation, however, I was at the hospital while my father-in-law was having heart surgery. You all were not far from my heart on Saturday, though. I wish you peace, Jennifer...and all six of your wonderful kids. God Bless.##imported-begin##Sammye Lawson##imported-end##

“ God looked around his garden and found an empty place
He then looked down upon this earth and saw your tired face
He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest God’s garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best
He knew that you were suffering
He knew you were in pain
He knew that you would never get well on earth again
He saw that the road was getting rough and the hills are hard to climb
So he closed your weary eyelids and whispered, “Peace be thine”
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn’t go alone
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home

*William, I will always love you and you will always be in my Heart.
Rest In Peace.*

*Love always,

“ *Life is but a stopping place,
A pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road,
to sweet eternity.
We all have different journeys,
Different paths along the way,
We all were meant to learn some things, but never meant to stay...
Our destination is a place,
Far greater than we know.
For some the journey's quicker,
For some the journey's slow.
And when the journey finally ends,
We'll claim a great reward,
And find an everlasting peace,
Together with the Lord.*

*Rest In Peace William, you will be greatly missed by all.##imported-
