“ Mrs. Tucker was not only my neighbor when I was growing up, but my chosen family. Mr. and Mrs. Tucker let me pick tomatoes every summer from their garden and in return, I helped rake their leaves in the fall. If my parents weren't home from work after school or had errands, I would stay with the Tuckers. What lovely, endearing friends and family they were. May you rest well, Mrs. Tucker - I hope you have been reunited with your love. My condolences to the family.

“ Mrs. Tucker (she wanted us to call her Wilma but we endearingly still used Mrs. Tucker out of our respect for her and her 100 years) was a wonderful woman with a warm heart, happy disposition and enjoyment for life. As we shared the same weekly beauty shop appointment she would often tell us stories from her past to include her service and overseas assignment as well as other experiences that she lived through her years. She was an amazing woman. Our lives are richer for having the pleasure of her company. Rest in peace dear Mrs. Tucker. With sincere sympathy, Lia and Mary Ann

Back when Wood was a Junior High, she was one of my favorite secretaries!! Always helpful and usually made you laugh at daily dilemmas! I have never forgotten her. To her family. Know she was loved by those of us blessed to have known her.

“ I worked at Shear Madness in the mini-mall in St. Robert as a receptionist during the 80's. Wilma had a standing appointment with Randy and I made sure to keep the appointment calendar updated. She always seemed to have a bit of a twinkle in her eyes. Many years later, I helped a friend who owns the flower shop in Waynesville during Valentine's Day. I took an order for Wilma Tucker from her son and was thrilled to hear she was doing well. My sympathy goes out to her family and those who loved her.
