“ Prayers and condolences to Don and her sons. Ellis and I thought a lot of her. She always spoke to us and greeted us with a smile and kind words at each meeting. I remember our conversations of crafting and how excited she was when I shared with her boxes of craft supplies. I remember the delight in her eyes she had when she showed me some of the items she'd created. The lady I knew was a pretty sweet, giving person and I was blessed to have known her.

“ Yllonda started as a client in my salon but quickly became a dear friend. Her hugs, kind words, and love was so genuinely shared with everyone. Her craft talents were amazing and I will cherish the gifts she gave me. She so loved her family. Don, she knew she wouldn't have been here this long without your loving care. My condolences and prayers for comfort.
